Complete Sentence A. Dispersed New concerns about growing religious tension in Kashmir were this week B. Fueled 14 C. Invalidated between Hindus and Muslims. D. Restrained Democratic societies from the earliest times have expected their governments to protect the weak against the strong. No 'era of good feeling' can justify discharging the police force or giving up the idea of public control over concentrated private wealth. On the other hand, it is obvious that a spirit of self-denial and moderation on the part of those who hold economic power will greatly soften the demand for absolute equality. Men are more interested in freedom and security than in an equal distribution of wealth. The extent to which Government must interfere with business, therefore, is not exactly measured by the extent to which economic power is A. Unhappy with the rich people concentrated into a few hands. The required degree of government interference B. More interested in freedom and depends mainly on whether economic powers are oppressively used, and on the 15 security necessity of keeping economic factors in a tolerable state of balance. C. Unhappy with their lot But with the necessity of meeting all these dangers and threats to liberty, the powers D. Clamor less for absolute equality of government are unavoidably increased, whichever political party may be in office. The growth of government is a necessary result of the growth of technology and of the problems that go with the use of machines and science. Since the Government in our nation, must take on more powers to meet its problems, there is no way to preserve freedom except by making democracy more powerful.
