

Everyday Science Online Test

Sr	Questions	Answers Choice
1	In 1960, American virologist John Enders developed the vaccine for	A. Anthrax B. Polio C. Measles D. Tuberculosis
2	What drug, discovered in 1944, was the first to be effective against tuberculosis?	A. Penicillin B. Erthromycin C. Quinine D. Streptomycin
3	The world' oldest medical text is about years old.	A. 950 B. 2,000 C. 4,000 D. 3,000
4	NSAIDs are which kins of drugs?	A. anti-inflammatory B. antipyretic C. pain relievers D. All of these
5	Antipyretic drugs are drugs that lower your bodyfrom a rasied state:	A. Temperature B. Hear C. Pressure D. None of these
6	Which of the following cause a false positive of heroin?	A. Tylenol B. Poppy seeds C. Aspirin D. Coca-Cola
7	In a normal situation what is the recommended method fo dealing with a venomous snake bite?	A. Suck out the poison by mouth B. Keep the bite lower than the heart and get immediate medical attention br> C. Make an incision and let he venor ooze back out D. Go online and try to figure out what type of snake it was br>
8	Why do not peppers make your nose run?	A. They contain capsaicin B. it is the beginning of a gag reflex. your body is trying to reject them C. They are Scary D. It is a psychosomatic response br>
9	In what country was the first known cataract surgery performed?	A. USA B. England C. France D. India
10	What was the name of the world's first human these-tube baby?	A. Louise B. Sarah C. Martha D. Heather br>