

Civics (English Medium) - 9th Class English Medium Civics Chapter 1

Q1. Define Civics ?

Ans 1: The science that studies different political, social, economic, rights and duties is called civics.

Q2. What is civic sense ?

Ans 1: It means that people should be conscious of their obligations and responsibilities which may develop a beautiful and healthy society.

Q3. What is the relationship between Civics and Psychology ?

Ans 1: Civics and Psychology are independent. For the establishment of good citizenship, society and acquisition of good citizenship, Civics makes rules and regulations; and gives utmost importance to mental tendencies of individuals. The basic aim of Civics is the removal of social evils. The study of public Psychology is essential to root out these evils.

Q4. Write the definition of Civics by E.J. Gould ?

Ans 1: "The study of institutions, habits, activities and spirit by which a man or a woman may fulfil the duty and receive the benefits of membership in a political community".

Q5. What is the definition of Civics by E.M. White ?

Ans 1: "Civics is that useful branch of human knowledge which deals within everything relating to citizen's past, present and future or local, national and human".

Q6. What is the relationship between Civics and Political Science ?

Ans 1: Civics deals with every aspect of social life, whereas Political Science deals with state and its administrative affairs. We can say that Political Science starts the studies of common subjects from that place where Civics ends up.

Q7. What is relationship between Civics and Economics ?

Ans 1: In modern times, Civics and Economics has developed a strong relationship. For instance poverty and prosperity affect the life of a citizen. Human welfare is the common objective of both the sciences. Economics teaches a person to earn wealth while Civics creates consciousness of its proper utilization.