

Education (E.M) - 9th Class English Medium Education Chapter 2

Q1. How education helps in students personality development ?

Ans 1: "Education" tells how the man child develops in various stages of his age. It emphasis the need for multi-dimensional productive development.

Q2. How education is helpful in understanding the psychology of students.

Ans 1: The students want that they must be recognized and identified. They want to be respected in his family, friends and society. Education must create the feelings of self-efficacy, integrity, and recognition in the students. The Holy Prophet (S.A.W.W) ordered his follows to respect the elders and love the youngers and thus to fulfill their psychological needs.

Q3. What are the components of education.

Ans 1: Educational objectives, planning of curriculum and educational administration all are components of education.

Q4. How many are the functions of education.

Ans 1: Following are the functions of education:

1. Preservation and transfer of culture.
2. Reconstruction of all there.
3. Fulfillment of individual needs.

Q5. Discuss education as a continuous process.

Ans 1: Education is a continuous process. It gives a positive direction to our physical, spiritual, mental, moral, emotional, social and psychological development. Education is a process that enables the students to conform with the norms of society. It is a fact universally acknowledge that if a person might not have a full exposure to education, most of his potentials remain eclipsed.