

Education (E.M) - 9th Class Education English Medium Short Questions

Q1. Write note on "Teaching Methodology".

Ans 1: Teaching methodology of a teacher plays a vital role in the process of education. If the teacher is facilitative in his teaching mode, he can squeeze wonders from his group of students. But if he adapts a harsh tone he could mar the softness of the young saplings of the nation.

Q2. Write a note on Center for Audio Visual Aids.

Ans 1: Audio-Visual aids play a crucial role in making the teaching and learning process more effective. Center for Audio-Visual Aids of teachers prepares low-cost Audio-Visual aids for the teachers which are provided to them by the government in their schools.

Q3. How broken homes affect learnings ?

Ans 1: Researches show that children with the broken home background were poor learners as compared to the students where home environment was peaceful and satisfying. Uneasy home environment creates aggressiveness in the children. On the other hand, good family environment assists the learning process.

Q4. What are the components of education.

Ans 1: Educational objectives, planning of curriculum and educational administration all are components of education.

Q5. What is Development ?

Ans 1: Woolfolk (1998) explains the process of development, "certain changes that occur in human beings (or animals) between conception and death. These appear in orderly ways and remain for a reasonably long period of time".

Q6. How education is helpful in understanding the psychology of students.

Ans 1: The students want that they must be recognized and identified. They want to be respected in his family, friends and society. Education must create the feelings of self-efficacy, integrity, and recognition in the students. The Holy Prophet (S.A.W.W) ordered his follows to respect the elders and love the youngers and thus to fulfill their psychological needs.

Q7. Discuss education as a continuous process.

Ans 1: Education is a continuous process. It gives a positive direction to our physical, spiritual, mental, moral, emotional, social and psychological development. Education is a process that enables the students to conform with the norms of society. It is a fact universally acknowledge that if a person might not have a full exposure to education, most of his potentials remain eclipsed.

Q8. Pen down functions of education.

Ans 1: 1. Creates civic sense amongst the people.
2. Inculcates moral values.
3. Sharpens human mind.
4. Creates learned personal.

Q9. Highlight the importance of home in education.

Ans 1: School is the institution run by the selected members of the society to embellish the saplings of the nation. School is the basic unit of formal education. It not only provides academic guidance to the students but takes measures to develop their personalities in all dimensions school pays due attention to the academic personal, physical, psychological social and moral development of the students. In this way school gives a balanced personality to the society.

Q10. Enlist four types of social differences.

Ans 1: Differences in family background, socio-economic status, religion and friends are example of social differences.

Q11. Discuss education in Europe and America.

Ans 1: Europe and America are industrialists societies. Their educational build up is quite different from the communist education. The education is skill oriented. Their educational system wants to see individuals as earning members. The ultimate end of their education is that a person must be self sufficient in earning. This is quite a materialistic concept of education.

Q12. How many are the functions of education.

Ans 1: Following are the functions of education:
1. Preservation and transfer of culture.
2. Reconstruction of all there.
3. Fulfillment of individual needs.

Q13. Discuss the place of students in the process of education.

Ans 1: It is no other than the student who is the axis of all efforts done with regards to education. It is the student whose multi dimensional development is the most preferred end of education.

Q14. Define education.

Ans 1: The word education "has been derived from Latin "educer" meaning to know". Education means knowledge-of the fears of past, challenges of future and hazards of present. John Dewy terms education as the purification of experience. Education transmits culture. It develops individuals as well as the society. Education draws a line of difference between man and animal. Man was made the crown of creations because he had the power of knowledge.

Q15. Write the levels of intellect.

Ans 1:

Q16. Differentiate between formal and Non-formal education.

Ans 1: Man never set his foot on earth as a born scholar. He masters skills and learns techniques in the very lap of the mother earth. The learning process of the students take place in two ways.

1. Formal 2. Non-Formal

Formal education occurs in the premises of the school. Non-formal education occurs in home and in the mids of the mob of society. Home, school and society are the key determinants of the students academic achievement.

Q17. What is Early childhood ?

Ans 1: Early childhood is the period in the child's life that extends from 2-6 years.

Q18. Give three examples of physical difference.

Ans 1: Difference in height, age and complexion are examples of physical differences.

Q19. What is meant by family background ?

Ans 1: Family background means the family conditions of the child including parental education, family income and number of siblings in the home etc.

Q20. Highlight the importance of school in education.

Ans 1: School is the institution run by the selected members of the society to embellish. the saplings of the nation. School is the basic unit of formal education. It not only provides academic guidance to the students but takes measures to develop their personalities in all dimensions school pays due attention to the academic personal, physical, psychological social and moral development of the students. In this way school gives a balanced personality to the society.
