

English - 9th Class English Chapter 5 Preparation

Q1. What was the Quaid concept of our nation.. Ans 1: The Quaid said that they are a nation with their distinctive culture and civilization He said that they had their own distinctive outlook on life. Q2. What do the daffodils represent in the poem? Ans 1: The Daffodils represent the attractive and exciting beauty of the nature and its impact on human being. Q3. List the words that heighten the sound in the poem. Ans 1: The following words heighten the sound effect of poem; Claud and crowd, hills and daffodils, trees and breeze, shine and line, way and bay, thought and bought. Q4. How has the poet heightened the impact of the poem by using the figurative language? Ans 1: The poet heightened the impact of the poem by using similies, imagery and personification. For example, poet personifies daffodils when he says that she daffodils were dancing in the breeze. Q5. What do the daffodils represent in the poem Ans 1: In this poem daffodils represent beauty of nature They are the sign of the beginning of spring They also stand for nature and its soft effects on human mind and soul Q6. How has the poet heightened the impact of the poem by using the figurative language. Ans 1: The use of figurative language makes a concept clear and beautiful This adds colour to the text The poet has heightened the impact of the poem by using simile hyperbole metaphor and personification Q7. List the words that heighten the sound effect in the poem Ans 1: The following words heighten the sound effect of poem Cloud and crowd hills and daffodils trees and breeze shine and line way and bay thought and bought

Ans 1: Memories of the scene give the wealth of both the images and feelings concerned to special moments in poet life

Q8. What wealth do memories of the scene give to the poet

Q9. What "wealth" do memories of the scene give to the poet?

Ans 1: Memories of the scene give the wealth of both the images and feelings concerned to special moments in poet's life.

Q10. How has the poet heightened the impact of the poem by using the figurative language

Ans 1: The poet has heightened the impact of the poem by using similes metaphors imagery and personification For example poet personifies daffodils when he says that the daffodils were dancing in the breeze