

Civics (E.M) - FA Part 1 Civics English Medium Chapter 4 Short Question Preparations

Q1. What does Liber say regarding the transformation of sovereignty.

Ans 1: "The transformation of sovereignty is just like a free that is deprived of its right of growing or like an individual who transforms his personality to any other and also remain alive."

Q2. Describe two characteristics of Austin's theory of sovereignty.

Ans 1: 1- Law is the order of absolute ruler.

Ans 2: 2- Sovereignty is indivisible and untransformable.

Q3. Which are the kinds of sovereignty.

Ans 1: 1- By name and Actual sovereignty

Ans 2: 2- Constitutional and political sovereignty

Ans 3: 3- Legal and indeed sovereignty

Ans 4: 4- Public sovereignty

Q4. Write down the five points of the characteristics of Sovereignty.

Ans 1: 1. Durability 2. Authoritativeness

Ans 2: 3. Peculiar Status 4. Comprehensiveness

Ans 3: 5. Indivisible

Q5. Write down any three characteristics of sovereignty.

Ans 1: 1- The sovereignty of a state is of stable and long lasting nature.

Ans 2: 2- Sovereignty is beyond limits and absolute and never answerable to any body.

Ans 3: 3- Sovereignty is not dispensable.

Q6. How did public sovereignty come into being.

Ans 1: The wave of anxiety and uneasiness across in different countries of Europe against the absoluteness in 18th Century. Authors, poets and thinkers raised their voices against oppressive and tyrant system and demanded that sovereignty should be given to public.

Q7. How has Rousseau defined the sovereignty.

Ans 1: "Sovereignty is definite, absolute indivisible and inalienable power."

Q8. What definition has Aristotle described of sovereignty.

Ans 1: "Sovereignty the superior and higher authority of state"

Q9. What is meant by political sovereignty.

Ans 1: The forces which actively take part in elections and later on pressure government to make decisions according to their will are called political sovereignty for example voters, political parties and pressure groups.

Q10. What two ancient Greek philosophers have mentioned the highest authority of sovereignty in their books.

Ans 1: Aristotle and Plato have discussed with details the highest superiority of sovereignty in their writings.
