

Education (English Medium) - FA Part 1 Education English Medium Chapter 1 Short Questions Preparation

Q1. Write down three significant elements of affective change.

Ans 1: Here are the significant elements of affective change:

1. Paying attentions forwards the thoughts of others.
2. Pondering over the thoughts.
3. Determining the worth of thoughts.

Q2. Write three points that must be known by a teacher for successful educative process.

Ans 1: Here are the points that must be known by a teacher for successful educative process:

1. The age-group of the learner.
2. Interests and tendencies of the learner.
3. Psychological and social needs of the learner.

Q3. How did Aristotle define 'education' ?

Ans 1: Aristotle said, "Education is a process of physical and moral development of men aiming at individual and collective well-being."

Q4. Write down three social characteristics of the educative process.

Ans 1: The social characteristics of the educative process are set forth in the following lines:

The educative process is

1. Administered by the society.
2. Organized for the individuals.
3. Aimed at social progress and stability.

Q5. What are the two salient functions of education with respect to learner ?

Ans 1: With respect to learner, education performs the following functions:

1. Development of hidden faculties of the learner
2. Personality formation of the learner

Q6. Briefly define formal education.

Ans 1: Formal education refers to the process of training and educating people that is conducted in the regular educational institutions and comprehensively planned for the acquisition of predetermined goals.

Q7. What is 'instruction' ?

- Ans 1: 1. Instruction refers to the process through which the students are motivated for learning.
2. Instruction refers to the process of transmission of excellence (information, skills, ideas, technologies) to the learners.
-

Q8. Define informal education.

- Ans 1: Informal education refers to a mode of education that is concerned with environment and society in which an individual is brought up and leads his/her life:
1. All human learning outside the formal and non-formal educational settings is informal education.
-

Q9. What is literal meaning of Education ?

- Ans 1: According to the literal concept of education, the word 'education' refers to know, recognize and to possess information. In this regard, education means learning and teaching.
-

Q10. Describe three points concerning the relationship between education and society.

- Ans 1: The relationship between education and society will be highlighted by the following points:
1. Education cannot survive without the existence of society.
2. Society depends on education for its stability and progress.
3. Education provides the required individuals to the society.
-