

English (New Book) - FA Part 1 English Chapter 27 Short Questions Preparation

Q1. How does the mother sparrow solace her young ones.

Ans 1: The mother sparrow solice her young ones by splitting the grain of millat into tiny pieces and feeding them one-by-one.

Q2. Write a cridcal appreciation of the poem.

Ans 1:

The poem is symbolic. The grain stands for resources . The young ones of the sparrow stand for the hungry. It teaches us that we should not produce weapons We We should produce food instead.

Q3. Explain the last three lines of the poem with relerence to thee context

Ans 1:

The poet suggests that the world countries should produce grains instead of weapons. They should alleviate hunger. The grain production is too small to fulfi the needs of the population .

Q4. Describe the chicks of the sparrow.

Ans 1: The chicks of the sparrow are very little., They are tenin number, From head to toe they are beaks.

Q5. Why is mother sparrow unable to feed her young ones?

Ans 1: The sparrow holds a grain of millet inher beak. ONe grainis to be fed to ten young ones. That is why , motehr sparrow is unable to feed them all at a time.

Q6. What does the sparrow hold in her beak?

Ans 1:

She 'holds a grain of millet. She wants to feed her young ones. But she cannot feed one grain to ten young ones. She cannot split it even.

Q7. How many young ones are to be fed?

Ans 1: The sparrow mother wants to feed her ten young ones. Dut she has got only one grainin her beak She cannot feed one grain to ten young onece.

Q8. "One grain to be fed to the ten young ones." What does the line mean?

Ans 1: The line means that the mother sparrow has shortage of food. She has ten young children and only one grain to feed them. Now she is going to divide the grain among ten of them.

Q9. What is the message of the poem "The feed"?

Ans 1: This is a symbolic poem. The grain of millet stands for resources of the world. The young ones of the sparrow are an emblem of hunger. This poem teaches us that we should not produce weapons but more and more food to save humanity from hunger.

Q10. Which line in the first stanza tells us that the young ones have no feathers?

Ans 1:
The line "From head to toe they are beaks" tells us so. It means that their tiny bodies hide behind their open beaks when they cry for food. It shows that they have not grown feather yet.
