

English (New Book) - FSC Part 1 English Chapter 34 Short Questions Online Test

Q1. Do you think these attributes of ALLAH are remembered and kept in mind by us in our daily routine work?

Ans 1:

The pious people keep these attributes in mind all the time. But usually, people do not keep them in mind.

Q2. What makes one scared of sinning?

Ans 1: ALLAH is all 'Seeing'. He sees everyone all the time. Nobody can hide from ALLAH. This attribute of ALLAH stops people from sinning

Q3. Why does God call Himself "Hearing"?

Ans 1: God calls Himself "Hearing" to stop us from foul talk

Q4. Mention three more attributes of ALLAH.

Ans 1:

There are 99 attributive names of ALLAH. These names express various attributes of ALLAH. The other three attributes of ALLAH are The Gracious, the Merciful, the Forgiving'

Q5. How do these attributes help in refining the character of a person?

Ans 1: ALLAH's attributes urge us to do good deeds. They also stop us from doing evil deeds. In this way, they refine our character.

Q6. Mention two attributes of God Almighty.

Ans 1: God's attributes mean the qualities of Allah, Allah has countless attributes but only three attributes are mentioned in the poem. These attributes are the 'Knowing', the 'Seeing' and the 'Hearing'.

Q7. How many attributes of ALLAH are mentioned in the poem?

Ans 1: Three attributes of ALLAH have been mentioned in the poem. They prove that ALLAH is the "Knowing", the "Seeing" and the "Hearing".

Q8. What are the effects of the attributes of ALLAH?

Ans 1:

ALLAH's attributes urge to do good deed. They also stop us from doing evil deeds. For example, ALLAH is the 'Knowing'. It stops us from doing evil deed.

---

Q9. How do God's attributes affect a man's character.

Ans 1: When God calls himself "All seeing", it restrains a person from doing wrong and when God calls Himself "All hearing", it checks a person from using foul language. God attributes urge us to do good deeds or stop us from doing evil deeds.

---

Q10. What is the central idea of the poem God's Attributes.

Ans 1: God is the Gracious the Merciful the Forgiving . He loves his people and all the creatures of the universe. The poet makes us realize that we should also be kind and merciful to others.

---