English (New Book) - ICOM Part 1 English Chapter 19 Short Questions Preparation

Q1. Why does the poet mean by the " Poor leaves"?

Ans 1: In this poem, poor leaves means the weak and young leaves on the the other hand, it also means poor people who depend son rich people to give them what God has given them.

Q2. How does the poet feel when he heqrs the rain ralling on the leaves.

Ans 1: The poet says that the noise of the rain falling on the leaves in sweet and lovely to hear

---

Q3. What does the poet hear in the poem, " The Rain".

Ans 1: The poet hears the sound of rain -drops on the leaves.

Q4. How can rainy day be enjoyed?

Ans 1: We can enjoy a rainy day by observing the beautiful scence. It creates it creates joy and pleasure in the hearts of the people. It givs life, joy and pleasrue to plants andhumans.

Q5. What isa the theme of the poem " The Rain"?

Ans 1: The theme of the poem " The Rain" is that " every clude has a silver lining . " In other words, when a short period of that is over, the prosperity spreads every where.

Q6. What is meant by rich and poor leaves.

Ans 1: The rich leaves denote " Fresh , healthyt and green leaves" While the por leaes mean sfeable and weak leaves as described in the poem " The Rain".

Q7. What is the effect of rian on poor.

Ans 1: As an effect of rain on poor, the rich leaves on top of the plant gives drops of water to lower leaves . In other sense, poor people can also enjoy the blessings of natur eand become happy.

Q8. How does rain fall on poor leaves.

Ans 1: Rain falls on poor an dfeable leaves drop-by- drop. It first falls on fresh leaves than it passes to the poor leaes dorp by drop.

Q9. Why does the poet call the upper leaves teh rich leaves.

Ans 1: The " Rich leaves" mean " fresh, healthy and green leaves". As the upper leaves have the same properties therefore the poet call them the " Rich Leaves".

Q10. What will happen when it stops raining.

Ans 1: When the rain is over the bright sun rises . It illuminates every drop of water with its glowing light. It makes the whole atmosphere lovely and bright.