

Commercial Geography (English Medium) - ICOM Part 2 Commercial Geography Chapter 3 Short Questions Preparation

Q1. How many percentage of the wood production is obtained from evergreen coniferous forests of the world ?

Ans 1: World's 50 percent timber wood is obtained from evergreen coniferous forest of the world.

Q2. Write down important trees of evergreen coniferous forests ?

Ans 1: Pine, spruce, firs, larch and deodar are some important tree species of evergreen coniferous trees.

Q3. Equatorial forest covers how many percent area of the total forest area of the world ?

Ans 1: Equatorial forest covers about 49 percent area of the total forest area of the world.

Q4. Eleven thousands years ago before the beginning of agriculture, how much land was under the forest ?

Ans 1: Before the beginning of agriculture, about 45 percent the earth surface was under forests-natural vegetation. Forest were shelter and source of food for man.

Q5. How many percentage area of world's natural forest in productive ?

Ans 1: World's forest's only 47.28 percent area is reachable and productive timber wood.

Q6. Which continent of the world is without natural vegetation ?

Ans 1: Continent of Antarctica is absolutely empty from natural vegetation because it is hundred percent under ice cover.

Q7. What you mean by deciduous forest ?

Ans 1: Deciduous forest are those, in which trees shed their leaves during summer or winter season. Deciduous are found in those parts where temperature and rain fall are moderate.

Q8. Which type of soil is suitable for the plant of Bluta ?

Ans 1: Clayey soil is best suitable for the plant of bluta's vegetative growth.

Q9. Write down regions of rain-fed equatorial forest ?

Ans 1: The equatorial rainfed forests are found in the plain areas of Amazon basin, Congo Basin and Coastal areas of West African countries like Guinea and Asian countries Indonesia, Malaysia and Singapore.

Q10. Describe, where Mediterranean evergreen forest are found ?

Ans 1: Mediterranean evergreen forests are found in California U.S.A central coastal are of Chile in the South American continent, in South Africa south-west. Cape region, south Australia-Adalade region, coastal region of Mediterranean countries of Europe and Africa.
