Commercial Geography (English Medium) - ICOM Part 2 Commercial Geography Chapter 5 Short Questions Preparation

Q1. How much world population is residing in developed countries of the world ?

Ans 1: Out of total population of the world, only 17 percent people are living in developed countries of the world.

Q2. At the time of agriculture revolution, how much was world population ?

Ans 1: At the time of agriculture revolution, world's population was only 80 lakhs (8 million) people.

Q3. According to population experts, when did man inhabited this earth planet ?

Ans 1: According to population experts, man is living on this earth planet since 20 to 50 lakh years 2to 5 million years.

Q4. Which continent is least populated ?

Ans 1: The continent of Australia is least populated among all continents of the world. This continent occupies about 6 percent land area of the world but possesses only 0.5 percent world population.

Q5. Write down factors responsible for unequal distribution of population in the world ?

Ans 1: Human settlements are in the areas, where agriculture activity is common and enough food is available for human beings. Therefore most of the world population is living over 10 percent cultivated land of the earth and after industrial Revolution, due to industrialization these region has become more populated. In general, location, physical features, altitude, climate, soil type, natural vegetation, minerals and energy resources are such factors, which affect the distribution of population over the earth planet.

Q6. Write down expected world population in 2018 A.D.

Ans 1: According to United Nations population wing estimate in 2018 A.D world population will be 7.508 billion people.

Q7. Write down main characteristics of stationary population growth stage ?

Ans 1: A country reaches stage four of the demographic transition when the crude birthrate decline to the point where it equals the crude death rate. The natural increase rate approaches zero and is known as condition of Zero population Growth. Most of the European countries are passing through this stage.

Q8. When did world population became 6 billion ?

Ans 1: On October 12th 1999, the United Nations announces, that global population had reached the 6 billion mark.

Q9. China and India contribute, how much population of the world ?

Ans 1: Population of China and India is 36.5 percent of the total population of the world.

Q10. In which countries of the World's 99 percent children deaths are taking place ?

Ans 1: World's 99 percent children deaths are taking place in under developed countries because of food efficiency and lack of medical facilities.
