

Commercial Geography (English Medium) - ICOM Part 2 Commercial Geography Chapter 9 Short Questions Preparation

Q1. Write down socio-economic factors required for development of woolen textile industry ?

Ans 1: Skilled labour, technical efficiency, demand in the local and international market capital, latest machinery, fast and cheap means of transportation, loan and banking facilities, political and economic stability and tax system are such factors, which help in the development of industry.

Q2. Write down important woolen textile centers in United States and from which countries wool is imported for woolen industry ?

Ans 1: In United States of America Providence, Woonsocket and Rhode Island are main industrial centers for woolen textile industry, U.S.A meets its wool demand by importing wool from Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Uruguay and Argentina.

Q3. Which valley in France is prominent in woolen textile industry ?

Ans 1: Rhine and Scene Valleys are industrial centers for woolen textile industry in France.

Q4. In Pakistan, when and where first woolen textile mill was installed ?

Ans 1: Pakistan's first woolen textile mill was established in Karachi in 1947.

Q5. Write down a important woolen textile industrial centers in Japan ?

Ans 1: In Japan Tokyo-Yokohama, Nagasaki, Nagoya, Kobe-Osaka are important woolen textile industrial centers.

Q6. In United Kingdom, which region is center of woolen industry ?

Ans 1: In United Kingdom Yorkshire region is center of the woolen industry, while West riding is main city where woolen textile industry is located. In this city about 85 percent of U.K woolen industry is located

Q7. Which animal is major source of raw material (wool) for woolen manufacturing ?

Ans 1: Major source of wool and sheep.

Q8. World's industrial developed countries produce how many percent of woolen products ?

Ans 1: More than 75 percent of woolen production comes from industrial developed countries.

Q9. In the world, from which region, modern woolen industry originated ?

Ans 1: Modern woolen industry started from central Europe and U.K promoted it with latest skill

Q10. Before, industrial Revolution of Russia (1917), which cities were important for woolen textile industry ?

Ans 1: Before industrial revolution of 1917 in U.S.S.R (EX) Moscow and Leningrade were important for woolen textile industry.
