English (New Book) - ICS Part 1 English Chapter 37 Short Questions Test

Q1. What is the theme of the poem' A man of words and not of deeds'.

Ans 1: The moral lesson of the poem is that it teaches us the value of work.It theses us that we should not be talkative only. We shuld try to put our words into action. The real worth is of deeds and not of wrods.

Q2. What is meant by 'A man of word and not of deed.?

Ans 1: It means " a man who only speak and does nothing " He does not put his talk into action. The line speaks talkative and idle men

---

Q3. Paraphrase the poem.

Ans 1: Read the paraphrase of the poem given above.

Q4. What happens when life is spend with the help of words and not of deeds.

Ans 1: A man who always talks and boards and is not involved in any deed is like a garden full of weeds It is, therefore necessary that a man must always engage himself in some fruitful activity to make the life pleasent and useful for humanity.

Q5. How does the life of a man pass through different phases of it?

Ans 1:
The poem is about a man who is talkative He does no good. With the passage of time, his faculties begin to rust (taTi). Finally, he is spiritually dead.

Q6.
A man of words and not of deeds ,
Is like a garden full of weeds .

Ans 1:
The poet says that a man who only talks is idle He does nothing useful. He is 1ike a garden full of weeds. As weeds are useless, words without deeds are futile. Deeds are the real fruit of words. AL dns
Therefore, one should do something instead tallking only.

Q7. What does the garden look like when the weds start growing.

Ans 1: When the weeds start growing.It looks like a garden full of snow.

Q8. What is the condition of the garden when the weeds start growing?

Ans 1: The garden that is full of weeds bears no fruit. It is useless and worth-nothing.It is no better than barrenness.

Q9. Why does the poet prefer a manof deeds.

Ans 1: Poet prefers a man of deeds becasue he is helpful.active and beneficial

Q10. What happens when the life is not of deeds but is full of words?

Ans 1: The life, full of words with no deed, is useless and worth-nothing . Such a lifeleads to ultimate ruin.