Q1. What was the condition of the tonsils of the sick girl.

Ans 1: Both the tonsils of the sick girl were covered with membrane. She had severe diphtheria.

Q2. What was the condition of the girl when the doctor arrived.

Ans 1: The girl was suffering from high fever. She was sitting on her father's lap in the kitchen table. Her face was flushed. She was breathing rapidly.

Q3. Why did the girl break the wooden blade.

Ans 1: The doctor wanted to inspect the girl's tonsils by opening her mouth with the wooden blade. But she resisted strongly. She broke the wooden blade to pieces.

Q4. Why did the doctor call the girl by her first name

Ans 1: The doctor called the girl by her first name because he wanted to realize the girl that he was well-wisher and sympathetic towards her.

Q5. Why was Mathilda hiding her sore throat?

Ans 1: Mathilda was hiding her sore throat and lying to her parent for three days to escape an examination by the doctor.

Q6. How did the child look by appearance in "The use of force".

Ans 1: The child was fully dressed. It was an unusually attractive little girl. She was strong and sturdy in appearance. She had magnificent blonde hair. Her face was flushed. She had high fever.

Q7. Why was the mouth of the girl bleeding.

Ans 1: When the doctor put a wooden blade behind the last teeth in the child's mouth, she gripped it between her molars and reduced it to pieces. This caused her mouth to bleed.

Q8. Under what circumstances the use of force can be justified.

Ans 1: The use of force is neither good nor desirable at any level. Especially, children must be treated with love. The use of force can only be justified if a child is not cooperating with his doctor.

Q9. What was the behaviour of Mathilda with the doctor.

Ans 1: Mathilda was looking to the doctor with fairly eating up eyes. She was not ready to co-operate with the doctor. She also attacked the doctor at his eyes.

Q10. How did the doctor try to persuade the girl to show her throat.

Ans 1: The doctor persuaded and coaxed the sick girl to open her mouth so that he might look into it. He did so by showing both his hands wide open to assure her that he was empty handed.
